Mrs. Effa Manley
101 Montgomery Street
Newark, N. J.

Dear Mrs. Manley:

Pardon my delay in answering, but it was necessary to check my records to get straightened out.

The discrepancy in your figures and mine no doubt lies in the fact that you are figuring the entire amount of what the clubs paid me, while our understanding is that the League gets commission only on games we book during the League season, which would be from May 14 to September 4.

In view of this, you will find that while, as you say, you paid me a total of $355.16, games of May 6 and 7, involving a commission of $65.95 was deducted, leaving a balance on which commission was due of $289.21. The slight difference between the latter figure and the $293.96 I gave you credit for, is the game played here with the Elites, which you are not paying for.

Regarding Homestead Grays, there is an actual error of $105 in their figures, on which I owe the League commission amounting to $26.25. This money had been paid to Leuschner, $80 in cash and $25 that he collected on a rain guarantee, and in view of this collection I didn't have the entry in my books. A difference of $13 lies in a game at Red Bank after the League season, and the few other dollars may be attributed to incorrect additions.

I am, therefore, enclosing a check for $25.25, which is what I still owe on my error in computing the Homestead Grays account, less $1.00 due me from credit I had given the League for additional Newark Eagle commission.

Trusting this will explain and straighten out the entire matter, I am

Sincerely,

Ed. Gottlieb
